December 20, 1970

Dear Harold and Hil,

Just a quickie note (and by God a delayed one) to both say hello, and to wish you the very Merriest of Christmases and Happiest of New Years from Anker and me!

Everything is perfect here; we couldn't be happier... (in fact I keep myself pinching to make sure I'm not dreaming, being back in that wakeful night mail that was Author's Round Table and then the Environment Monthly.

Comes April we'll be returning to Vienna where Anker will give a couple of lectures on Tarot (Kapezelle that is) of the 20's and 30's, as well as regarding techniques then and now. Should be interesting — we're both looking forward to the experience.

I hope all is well with you and that things are progressing along nicely with your brainy many important projects. (I believe I'm more specific on a postcard, and promise a long note after the holiday confusion's over.)

Please write when you have a moment (or make one ... as you always manage to do) — I'll do the same.

Meanwhile, all the best in 1971 to you both — from your weekly weekly!

Love Bertie
